

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

Experience Map

PROMISE
@ uwindsor.ca

University
of Windsor

EXPERIENCE.UWINDSOR.CA

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES GRADUATES

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Explore the complexities and challenges associated with international governance to better understand how politics works in the developed and developing world. If you are considering a career in a competitive global environment, this program is for you, especially if you're interested in international diplomacy, in such international organizations as the United Nations, non-governmental organizations as Amnesty International, the Canadian Foreign Service, and/or international business

FUNCTIONAL KNOWLEDGE

- Describe and explain major issues and phenomena of political science, international relations, and global developments
- Research and investigate political issues, synthesize data and information from varying sources and present descriptive and empirical evidence to support a central thesis
- Confidently assert political ideas and arguments, and defend them with sound reason and logic
- Effectively communicate ideas, arguments and evidence through clear, concise and coherent written work
- Explain the rights and responsibilities associated with Canadian and global citizenship
- Propose and evaluate alternative policy solutions to contemporary societal problems

CURRICULUM

Courses of study specific to each program

CO-CURRICULAR

Activities and experiences that complement coursework

(Outstanding Scholars, STEPS workshops, peer mentoring, VIP)

EXTRACURRICULAR

Activities falling outside of the scope of set curriculum (Part-time job, clubs, volunteering, athletics)

BUILD YOUR SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

Your UWindsor experience is more than attending classes. It is a combination of academics, co-curricular activities, and extracurricular involvement. By making the most of all three elements of your university experience, you will maximize your opportunities to build your skills, broaden your personal network, and clarify your long term academic and career goals.

CAREER PLANNING GUIDE

Intentional career planning will help you prepare for your next step after graduation. It is a fluid, dynamic, and continuous process, meaning you can move on or return to an earlier stage at any time. You can even work through simultaneous cycles, like one for your long-term dream job and another for a summer job.

Experience Map

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

This guide is meant to help you explore various opportunities throughout the course of your UWindsor experience. It is intended to help you link academics, co-curricular, extra-curricular and career planning activities by suggesting some of the options available to you. This is to help you see what you can do, rather than what you are required to do!

First Year

Academics

- Take required courses including Introduction to Canadian Government and Politics with mentorship component and Introduction to International Relations and Effective Writing I and II
- Review degree course requirements
- Research available concentrations in Economics, History, Sociology/ Anthropology, Gender, International Exchange, Middle East and Islamic Studies, Philosophy or a foreign language in order to complete two of them
- Meet with an academic advisor
- Receive peer mentorship from Political Science Help Centre

Experience

- Explore available International Studies internships and field placements*
- Apply for a co-curricular experience such as the Volunteer Internship Program (VIP)*
- Volunteer with local government or a non-profit organization
- Investigate research opportunities as part of the Outstanding Scholars program*
- Research student exchange opportunities for middle years in such locations as the UK, France or Australia*
- Join such clubs as the Undergraduate Society for IR and Political Science, Model United Nations, UWSA, Mock Trial Association, or Pre-Law Society

Career

- Create a list of things that you enjoy, areas in which you excel, and skills you have
- Meet with Career & Employment Services (CES) to develop a plan for your future years
- Consider taking an interest assessment to help you identify possible career paths
- Attend a CES workshop to learn how to find a summer or part-time job
- Become familiar with the mySuccess online job search tool
- Attend a CES resumé and cover letter workshop to get your resumé critiqued

Middle Years

- Take required courses and check in with academic advisor to make sure you are on the right path
- Explore research opportunities with professors★
- Consider taking courses in accordance with Certificate in Public Administration or Law and Politics
- Start taking courses required as pre-requisites for graduate/professional school
- Seek out internships and courses that offer field experience★
- Continue taking courses with a strong emphasis on academic writing/research
- Consider declaring a minor and/or specialization
- Consider applying to go on exchange in your third year (apply in second year) to fulfill the International Exchange concentration option

- Join a professional association in your field such as the International Studies Association
- Join the Debate Team, Mock Trial Association, or Model United Nations to compete in local and international competitions
- Participate in UWill Discover undergraduate research conference★
- Attend a Political Science Speaker Luncheon Series presentation
- Apply for student exchange program★
- Expand your skills by taking on a summer, part-time or volunteer position
- Consider running for office in the Undergraduate Society for IR and Political Science and/or as student representative on the Departmental Council
- Consider applying to become a Political Science Mentor (in third or fourth year)

- Research career fields and occupations of interest to you
- Explore opportunities and meet employers through a job fair or employer information session
- Attend the Graduate and Professional Schools Fair to explore further educational opportunities
- Analyze the requirements for graduate or professional schools of interest
- Make an appointment with Career & Employment Services to explore career options
- Create a LinkedIn profile and have it critiqued
- Take part in informational interviews through sources such as Ten Thousand Coffees

Final Year

- Meet with faculty and academic advisor to go over degree requirements
- Complete all required courses in order to fulfill your degree audit
- Apply to graduate through MyUWindsor Portal
- Complete both required concentrations, as well as remaining coursework
- Work with a faculty member on a research project or publication★
- Complete required courses for Public Administration or Law and Politics Certificate
- Take a field work, internship, practicum course to culminate your senior experience★

- Work with the Cross-Border Institute to conduct research and public outreach★
- Become a tutor for Students Offering Support (SOS)
- Join the UWindsor Model NATO, Model United Nations or run for a UWSA executive position
- Work with a local organization through such field placement courses as the Public Service Management Internship Practicum★
- Run for office on the Departmental Council or Undergraduate Society for IR and Political Science
- Conduct field research with faculty member★
- Consider applying to become a Political Science Mentor (in third or fourth year)

- Consider applying to graduate or professional school and be aware of early application deadlines
- Meet with Career & Employment Services to prepare application documents such as a resumé, CV or personal statement
- Attend an Interview Skills Workshop and Job Search Tips Workshop
- Set up a mock interview for professional school or job applications
- Meet employers at the annual job fair in January
- Compose a portfolio of relevant academic and work experience

LIFE AFTER GRADUATION

Percentage of Political Science/Government graduates from Canadian universities who continue studying after a bachelor's degree.
(National Graduates Study 2013)

COMMON INDUSTRIES FOR UWINDSOR INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES GRADUATES

- Academia
- Business: analysis, research, corporate communications
- Education: public schools, vocational/corporate training
- Government services
- Journalism: political correspondence and analysis
- International diplomacy and foreign service
- International governance and non-governmental organizations
- Law and legal services
- Law enforcement
- Politics: political office, campaign management, polling and research, speechwriting
- Public policy think tanks and consulting: public/private sectors

CAREER TRACKS*

Ambassador	Diplomatic officer	Legal consultant	Professor
Border services official	Foreign correspondent	Lobbyist	Project manager
Community developer	Human rights officer	Operations director	Public official
Consultant	Immigration agent	Law enforcement officer	Public relations officer
Court monitor	International health educator	Policy analyst	Reporter
Demographer	Journalist	Political aide	Research co-ordinator
Development analyst	Lawyer	Political organizer	Teacher

* Additional education and/or training required for some of the above careers.

CAREER-READINESS COMPETENCIES

Critical Thinking and Problem Solving: Using strategic and creative thinking to make decisions and evaluate solutions

- Analyzing multiple dimensions of an issue in a number of relevant contexts to systematically investigate a problem
- Understanding how to apply new and/or unfamiliar information to various situations and settings
- Performing comparative and critical analyses of primary sources to support and/or reject various ideas, opinions, and proposals

Professionalism and Work Ethic: Demonstrating personal management practices and a high level of integrity and ethical behaviour

- Comprehending the thoughts and ideas of people from disparate times and places; appreciating the relevance of these ideas in both historical contexts and modern terms
- Understanding and applying global leadership principles sensitive to social, cultural, and political issues
- Setting priorities, meeting deadlines, and effectively managing time, data, and resources under pressure

Teamwork and Collaboration: Working as a productive member of a group and collaborating with others to achieve set goals

- Working effectively as part of a team by identifying your role and contributing, through leading, teaching, and encouraging others, to its success
- Supervising/overseeing a project from conception to conclusion while determining outcomes, making decisions, and delegating roles optimally
- Applying knowledge of the structures of decision-making and power to lead in various economic and social roles

Communication: Appropriate and effective articulation of ideas and information to a range of audiences

- Writing careful, clear, concise, and reasoned reports, essays and other professional documents
- Preparing engaging, creative, and informative presentations that appropriately target diverse audiences
- Developing, preparing, and delivering debate remarks and demonstrating oral critical argumentation skills

CAMPUS RESOURCES

- Visit Leddy Library and the Writing Support Desk on the main floor for help with academic assignments
- Improve study skills through the Skills To Enhance Personal Success (STEPS) program
- Discover ways to get involved on campus through the Student Success and Leadership Centre
- Explore mentorship opportunities through the Connecting4Success (C4S) and Bounce Back programs
- Apply to the Volunteer Internship Program (VIP) to get involved in the community
- Look into the Work Study program for on-campus employment opportunities
- Broaden your cultural awareness through the International Student Centre and Student Exchange Office
- Get assistance developing your career plan and job search skills from Career & Employment Services
- Consult with the EPICentre if you are interested in starting your own business
- Seek out assistance with academic accommodation from Student Accessibility Services
- Tend to your health and wellness with support from Student Health Services, Lancer Recreation and the Student Counselling Centre

Recruitment Office

Phone: 519-973-7014
Toll-Free: 1-800-864-2860
Email: info@uwindsor.ca

Department of Political Science

Phone: 519-253-3000, Ext. 2348
Email: polsci@uwindsor.ca

Career and Employment Services

Phone: 519-253-3000, Ext. 3895
Email: careerservices@uwindsor.ca
experience.uwindsor.ca

University
of Windsor

PROMISE
@ uwindsor.ca